

IF YOU PAY HALF OF THE DEBTS YOU OWE TO YOURSELF, YOU'LL BE ABLE TO PAY ALL THE DEBTS YOU OWE TO OTHERS!

You "owe it to yourself" to BUY WISELY. If there's a chance to make one dollar serve you as well as two dollars ordinarily, do you "owe it to yourself" to find that chance?

If there are chances to save five dollars on a suit of clothes, or on a dress, a piece of furniture, a jewelry purchase, a trunk, on the monthly grocery bills, the month's expenditures for shoes, hats, haberdashery, you "owe it to yourself"—surely—to find these chances! Some of your friends are finding such chances ALL THE TIME! They are advertisement readers, of course.

No, if you would pay one of the most important and urgent of the debts that you owe to yourself, become an advertisement reader—a buyer of advertised things!

MAKE YOUR BACK YARD BEAUTIFUL

Suggestion For Transforming the Rear of Homes.

THE LESSON OF ONE WOMAN.

How Yard in Back of the House of Mrs. Denison in Scranton, Pa., Is Utilized in All Seasons of the Year. It Is Economical.

There is a study in contrasts in back yards, and it demonstrates what may be accomplished by the expenditure of some effort and a little skill in horticulture. Anybody with a back yard no matter how insignificant in size or how steep, may have a pretty little flower or vegetable garden. In many large towns and cities there has long been a successful movement for the beautifying of that traditional enemy, the back yard, where most people appear to think all kinds of rubbish and debris should be piled up and displayed in a conspicuous manner.

A BACK YARD GARDEN IN THE TENEMENT DISTRICT.

Flowers and vegetables in the back yards keep the young folks—and the older ones, too—out of mischief, and a housewife who has to care for a few plants has not much time for gossiping and conferring with gossiping neighbors over the rear fence. Aside from having this highly beneficial effect, a yard full of nice things is most instructive. It takes people back to the soil and gives them something more to think about than the ordinary workaday matters of prosaic life. As a rule, those interested in land culture not only take their work seriously, but find in it one of the greatest pleasures of life.

During an investigation of towns and cities for the betterment of back yards one that was a pleasure to the eye and a credit to the city of Scranton, Pa., was the rear yard of Mrs. F. E. Denison. There is quite a plot of ground in the rear of her house which was a sight to make the spirit rise up and rebel when she first saw it. There were old cans and boxes, and weeds sprouted in much confusion. But she soon changed all this.

Purchasing some seed, she fell to, and in a very short time that unsightly back yard blossomed like the proverbial rose garden. Now she has ever so many kinds of plants. She has made it a practice in the morning before attending to her household duties to take hold of hoe and spade and to work in her garden. The rest of the family lend their assistance also. She has a procession of flowers. Before the snow leaves the ground in the late winter the snowdrops appear in the beds; then when March winds blow and bluster pretty crocuses peep out, followed by jonquils and bleeding hearts; then as summer rolls round her garden is a mass of beautiful flowers and a variety of vegetables. Now, this little garden is preached to ruralists not to tell them of the pretty yard of this industrious woman, but only to demonstrate just what can be done with that small space in the rear of their homes. So let those that are not affected with bookworm and interested in the improvement of their towns band together to see that the small piece of ground back of their houses is tilled and made beautiful and useful.

Law on "Common Towel"

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 50 of the acts of 1912 the Massachusetts state board of health at a regular meeting has voted to make these regulations as announced by Secretary Mark W. Richardson: It shall be unlawful to provide a common towel (a) in any building used as a public institution, hotel, restaurant, theater, public hall or public school or (b) in any railroad station, railroad car, steam or ferry boat. The term "common towel" as used in these regulations shall be considered to mean a roller or a towel available for use by more than one person.

THE PRINCIPLES OF EFFICIENCY.

According to Harrington Emerson, the noted sewage and water-works expert, the altruistic principles of efficiency are six, as follows:

- First—Ideals.
 - Second—Common sense and judgment.
 - Third—Competent counsel.
 - Fourth—Discipline.
 - Fifth—The fair deal.
 - Sixth—Efficiency reward.
- The practical principles are also six:
- First—Records—immediate, reliable and adequate.
 - Second—Planning and dispatching.
 - Third—Standards.
 - Fourth—Standardized conditions.
 - Fifth—Standardized operations.
 - Sixth—Written standard practice instructions.

SOME GOOD ADVICE.

Intended For the Farmer, but of Use to the Merchant.

A man of considerable experience in retail routes suggests the following series of don'ts for guidance of readers:

- Don't retail your goods at wholesale prices and kick the grocer if he does not pay you retail price.
- Don't have a different price for each customer.
- Don't have your customers make your prices. Be sure you are right, then go ahead.
- Don't buy cold storage eggs and sell them for freshly laid eggs. It is an insult to honest farmers.
- Don't sell fifty-five pounds for a sixty-pound bushel.
- Don't put small apples in the bottom of the barrel.
- Don't overestimate the quality of your goods.
- Don't forget that "here a little and there a little" is the gross profit in the end.
- Don't forget that a steady keep at it will win.
- Don't talk politics or religion.
- Don't sell a fowl for a chicken. It will pay best to reverse the order.
- Don't talk about the last customer you called on at the next stopping place.
- Don't try to make people believe you know what they want better than they do.
- Don't forget, rain or shine, circus or town meeting, to be on hand on your regular trips.
- Don't try to sell overcoats in July and linen coats in December. Sell seasonable goods at seasonable times.
- Don't forget to say "No" to a doubtful customer.
- Don't be afraid to turn your basket of berries bottom side up.
- Don't forget to sell No. 1 goods at top notch prices.
- Don't forget a bargain counter has its demerits. If you have any admit it and pass on.
- Don't forget to suit your trade, and they will pay for it.
- Don't forget common sense people still live.
- Don't wear your heart on your sleeve. If you have a hankering to meet keep it to yourself.
- Don't forget to smile on entering the house and don't forget to keep your place as a salesman.
- Don't forget to make friends with all your customers.—Orange Judd Farmer.

OIL ON STREETS.

Belvidere, Ill., Uses Water Sprinkling Wagon.

The city of Belvidere, Ill., has just completed the job of sprinkling with oil the principal business and residential streets.

The work was done under the direction of Superintendent of Streets Homer Kennedy. A Wakefield does the sprinkling, using the wagon regularly employed for sprinkling the streets with water. The oil is white and sufficiently light in density to admit of sprinkling by the ordinary method, being in consistency about that of kerosene. The property owners pay for the oil and the city the expense of sprinkling the streets. The cost to the property owners was about 5 cents per running foot. The result of this oiling of macadam paved streets is, as has been demonstrated in other places, to keep down the dust, make a binder to hold the surface to a considerable extent and make somewhat of an asphalt surface.

"COPS" TO FIGHT FLIES.

Policemen Have Been Added to New York Health Board.

A squad of policemen have been assigned to New York's health department to make war on the fly. Those are Mayor Gaynor's orders, and they will be carried out.

The "fly squad" will not be permitted to kill flies. That is not the object at all. They will simply have to see that no fly or no more flies than are just necessary will make their home in the city.

Their principal duty will consist in clapping the lids down tight on all garbage cans in the city. It is a violation of section 108 of the sanitary code to leave a garbage can open. This section is disobeyed in every quarter, and the "fly cops," therefore, if they are disobeyed too much, can make arrests.

Wells Fargo & Co., being compelled to give up their present office location, are figuring to erect their own building on railroad right of way ground near the Denver and Rio Grande depot.

LAMBS AND FEEDERS BRING GOOD PRICES

ADVANCE OF TWENTY-FIVE TO THIRTY-FIVE CENTS.

Best Utah Lambs In Demand at Around Sixty-Eighty-Five to Seventy-Five—Lighter Receipts Than a Year Ago and Greater Demand From the Country Buyers.

Correspondence The Advocate.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 7.—Cattle received here this week 65,000, last week 52,500, same week last year 58,200 head. A considerable part of the increase in cattle this week was in the quarantine division, and the market there showed more backbone than it has displayed in a month. The cows and calves in the quarantine division this week sold firm, and the steers averaged nearly steady, with the best ones selling at $6.15 to $6.00, but at $5.00 to $6.00, some light Arkansas steers down to $4.10. In the native division the feature has been the heavy country demand, that channel absorbing nearly half the run. Prices on country grades slumped a little, though declines on stockers and feeders seldom stick this season. Within a day or two after a break they will be found the old prices again. Feeders sell now mainly at $6.00 to $7.25, and stock steers $4.40 to $6.50. Plump cattle were scarce, a few lots selling at $10.20 to $10.40 during the week, steady prices. Top grass steers sold at $5.25, though the bulk ranged from $6.00 to $8.25 in the native division. Colorado beef steers sold at $5.85 to $7.00 this week, and cows and heifers at $5.00 to $5.85. Reports of dry weather keep coming in, and unless it rains this week some cattle will be forced to leave Central Kansas.

Sheep received here this week 42,000, last week 41,900, same week last year 71,500 head. Lambs and feeding stock are up twenty-five to thirty-five cents this week, and wethers and ewes are also stronger. Best Utah lambs bring $6.85 to $7.10, and feeding lambs are taken eagerly around $6.40. Fat wethers sell at $4.25 to $4.40, several strings of Montana wethers here this week within that range. With lighter receipts than a year ago and a greater demand from the country, the market looks bright ahead.

REORGANIZATION OF ROAD

Moffat Line May Become An Actuality Under New Plans.

The Denver, Northwestern and Pacific, known as the Moffat road, is to be reorganized, according to a dispatch from Denver. The telegraphic communication says that contracts were signed in New York last Monday in which Newman Erb and a New York syndicate will take over the control of the road. This syndicate will get 51 per cent of the stock of the new company, under the terms of the agreement, the company to take over the property at a foreclosure sale.

The bond issues of the new company will be $25,000,000. Of that amount $7,500,000 will be issued immediately. The holders of the $3,500,000 notes and the $8,000,000 in bonds will be held as collateral security. Erb and his syndicate, which includes the Denver men interested, will take $1,250,000 of the bonds.

The district court will be asked to authorize an additional $300,000 in receiver's certificates, to be issued for improvements.

MUTUAL IMPROVEMENT STAKE CONVENTION

Stake convention of the Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement associations will be held in the Price public school building next Sunday, September 15th, at 10 o'clock in the morning and 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Eight o'clock in the evening at City Hall will be held a conjoint session, at which this program will be rendered:
